

Bass Guitar Notes

Date: _____

A Bass Guitar has 4 strings. They are E A D G.
E is the thickest string, A the next thickest, D the next thickest.
G is the thinnest string on the bass guitar.

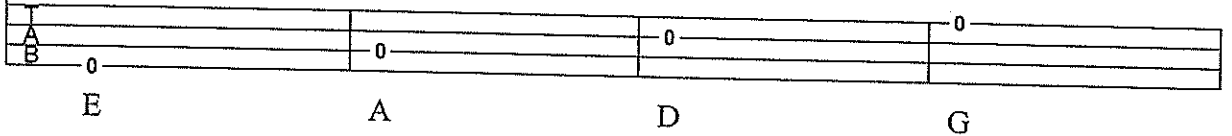

On music staff the notes look like this:

A musical staff with a bass clef. It contains four measures, each with a single note: E, A, D, and G. The notes are placed on the second, third, fourth, and first lines of the staff respectively.

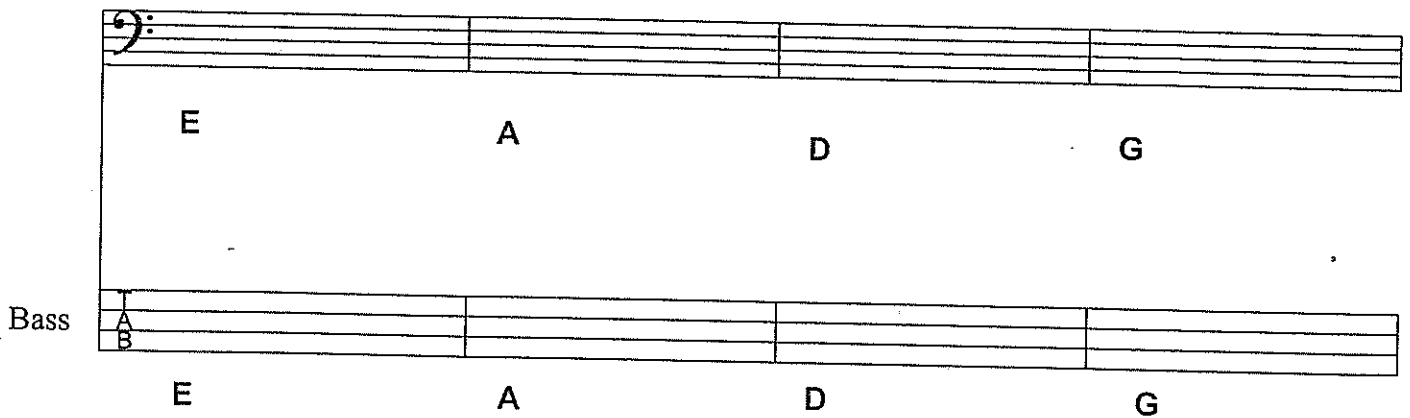

On Guitar TAB (tablature) the same notes look like this:

Bass guitar

A guitar tablature diagram for a bass guitar. It shows four strings (E, A, D, G) and four measures. Each measure has a '0' on the corresponding string, indicating the open string. The notes E, A, D, and G are written below each measure.

Copy the notes onto the staff and TAB below

A blank musical staff with a bass clef and a blank guitar tablature diagram for a bass guitar. The staff has four measures, and the TAB has four measures. The notes E, A, D, and G are written below each measure of the TAB. The strings are labeled E, A, D, G on the left.
